Office of the Secretary
Federal Communications Commission
Washington DC

Subject: FORMAL COMPLAINT and DEMAND FOR FULL DISCLOSURE
Under the Freedom of Information Act:

DOCUMENT 07/27/1999 Title:

COMMENTS ON AND DIALING PROPOSAL FOR THE EXPANDED USE OF HEXADECIMAL PHONE NUMBERS UNDER A NEW "INDUSTRY" CLASS OF SERVICE THAT WILL ALLEVIATE THE AREA CODE ASSIGNMENT CRUNCH AND PROVIDE SUBSTANTIAL EXPANSION OF ALREADY AVAILABLE NUMBERS IN ALL
LOCATIONS AND IN ALL AREA CODES AND ALL AT NO COST TO ANYONE

REPLY DOCUMENT 08/30/1999

Dear Office of the Secretary:

On or about 07/27/1999, I along with 3,500 others submitted comments in the FCC
CC 99-200 forum at your request to discuss the matter of Numbering Resource Optimization possibilities including Hexadecimal Dialing Proposal For America as titled above.

To this date, we have no information on the whereabouts of this document or the REPLY DOCUMENT 08/30/1999 or of any analysis of the contents of the documents or possible implementation of the comments contained within.

FORMAL COMPLAINT and FORMAL DEMAND under the Freedom of Information Act is hereby made to you for a full and detailed accounting of the FCC action on this FORMAL submission.

We shall expect a full accounting of who read it, their professional qualifications, their notes and analysis, what they did with it, where it is now, what is expected to happen to its suggestions in the future, and what the FCC intends to do about it.

The Freedom of Information Act provides for a REASONABLE time to respond. I take that to mean, 30 days from the above date.

Sincerely,

/s/ Wm. J. Neill
